Clean Slate

Clean Slate help vulnerable people with drug and alcohol addictions or who are in recovery, to regain control of their finances. They offer free, confidential help, advice and training so you can learn how to manage your money. They can help you to

- claim benefits and make sure you’re getting all the money you’re entitled to
- sort out your debts
- find a loan you can afford to pay back
- find a good energy deal for your gas and electric
- budget your money
