St James's United Reformed Church

St James' United Reformed Church is a Trinitarian place of worship and emphasises the importance of preaching and studying the Bible.

The church welcomes the wider community and other Christian groups worship at the church including: Northern Lights MCC (an inclusive church founded by LGBT people in North East England) and Newcastle Chinese Christian Fellowship.

It has a range of community services including rooms for hire. They have venue space (up to 200 people) and meeting rooms (up to 25 people) available. There is limited on-site parking for blue badge holders or guest speakers.
