

Ageing with Style

October is the month during which older people worldwide stand proud and celebrate their achievements and the contributions they make to society. In Newcastle there will be a range of activities taking place during the month.

You can search for these events by entering 'Ageing with Style' in the 'Search events and activities' box or by clicking on 'Older People' in the 'Browse by type' box on the Events and Activities page.

Last updated: August 6, 2019
