Podcasts

Podcasts are pre-recorded radio shows that are available at your fingertips in audio libraries on your smartphone or tablet. YOU can enjoy them anywhere, whilst you are cooking and when you are walking. They have seen a surge in popularity since the lockdown as they keep you company and help you sidestep boredom. Shows cover everything from current affairs to books; wellbeing to true crime. They provide debate, comedy, and teach you something new. There are lots of platforms such as Spotify, Acast, MixCloud and Podbean. Download these from your app store.

How to listen

1. look for your podcasts app on your smartphone or tablet.
2. see what is trending
3. use the search button to find what you want (see list below as a starting point)
4. when you click on subscribe, each time a new episode is released it will automatically download, ready for you to listen
5. download at home or using WiFi
