

Action for Children

Action for Children protects and supports children and young people, providing practical and emotional care and support, ensuring their voices are heard, and campaigning to bring lasting improvements to their lives. They cover parents, fostering and adoption and have resources to help.

They also provide a free parenting helpline called Parent Talk. This service includes informative articles and a 1 to 1 live chat feature.

They run services in Newcastle which includes:

- domestic violence support
- counselling
- drop in family advice sessions from Citizens Advice Newcastle at their centres in Kenton and Benwell
