

North East Law Centre

From March 2020 – Telephone contact only.

During coronavirus: supporting families in crisis who don't know where to go for help. Examples of help include benefit sanctions, sudden job loss, eviction or threat of eviction, family crisis.

North East Law Centre provide legal advice to people on low incomes on:

- immigration and asylum law
- employment law
- family law (free for Newcastle residents)
- discrimination law
- education law
- welfare benefits
- complex EU Settlement Scheme cases

They offer drop in advice sessions at:

- Riverside Community Health Project Mondays 9.30am to 11.30pm term time only
- West End Women and Girls centre for women on Wednesdays 9am to 11am term time only
- Wor Hoose Community Project Wednesdays 10am to 1pm term time only
- welfare rights advice and advocacy support at ReCoCo \(Recovery College Collective\) for enrolled students.

They're an independent and not for profit legal practice offering advice to residents and organisations. If you are not eligible for legal aid or their free services, you can access their low cost immigration and family law services.

Last updated: November 13, 2020

Telephone: 0191 230 4777

Website: www.newcastlelawcentre.co.uk

Fax: 0191 230 4777

Email: reception@nelawcentre.co.uk

Twitter: <https://twitter.com/NELawCentre>

Facebook: <https://en-gb.facebook.com/NorthEastLawCentre/>

Opening Hours: Telephone advice Fridays, 10am – 1pm

Cost: There may be a cost to this service/support

Address:

MEA House

Ellison Place

Newcastle upon Tyne

NE1 8XS

Related Articles

Where to get legal advice

Immigration and Asylum

Family and relationship problems

Separation and divorce