

Royal National Institute for the Deaf (RNID)

The Royal National Institute for the Deaf (RNID), formerly known as Action on Hearing Loss are a charity making life fully inclusive for deaf people and those with hearing loss or tinnitus. Together, they campaign for an inclusive society. They connect people to practical advice and fund research to pioneer new treatments for hearing loss or tinnitus.

Last updated: April 30, 2021

Telephone: 0808 808 0123

Telephone note: Helpline

Website: <https://rnid.org.uk/>

Textphone: 0808 808 9000

Minicom: 0808 808 9000

Email: information@rnid.org.uk

Twitter: <http://twitter.com/actiononhearing>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/rnid>

Youtube: <http://www.youtube.com/user/actiononhearingloss>

Address:

9 Bakewell Road
Orton Southgate
Peterborough
PE2 6XU

Related Articles

Deaf and hard of hearing