

ACAS North East

Acas (Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service) work with employers and employees to improve organisations and working life through better employment relations. You can make an appointment to go in and see them, or arrange for an adviser to visit or discuss issues over the phone and give advice and guidance. Contact their Customer Services Team on 0300 123 1150 for more details.

They also provide training and tailored advice to employers.
