

Connected Voice

Connected Voice, formerly known as Newcastle CVS, is an independent charity which raises the voice of the charity and voluntary sector by:

- providing an independent voice on policy and strategy
- offering independent advocacy services to those in need
- delivering professional community accountancy services
- promoting best practice in health and social care

Connected Voice is commissioned by Newcastle City Council for:

- voluntary and community sector infrastructure support
- Black and Minority Ethnic (BME) health and wellbeing development support
