

Hospice UK

Hospice UK is the national charity working for those experiencing dying, death and bereavement. They work to ensure everyone affected by death, dying and bereavement gets the care and support they need, when they need it. They support over 200 hospices across the UK with training and support for professionals, raising the standards of palliative and end of life care and embracing and provoking conversations about death, dying and bereavement across all sectors of our society.

Parent charity of Dying Matters Awareness week which takes place in May each year.
