

Mental Health Concern (MHC)

Mental Health Concern is part of Concern: the Mental Health and Wellbeing Group. It provides a wide range of specialist mental health services including Moving Forward, a community service. Predominantly commissioned by the NHS and the council.

Your call

Your Call is a Big Lottery funded project. If you feel that you are at risk of losing your independence and need help give them a call on 0300 300 7070 (local rate) or email and see what help they can offer. This could include help with daily tasks, organising repairs for your home, understanding how to manage your health conditions and helping you resolve your financial difficulties.

Mental Health Concern is commissioned by Newcastle City Council for crisis response and homelessness and prevention services.
