

East End Women

East End Women is a community project which delivers a programme of events and courses to women living in the East End of Newcastle.

They offer a range of courses and activities throughout the year including:

- Freedom programme (domestic abuse awareness)
- DIY and practical skills training
- social activities to combat isolation and loneliness
- well-being and therapeutic activities
- Riverside roots community gardening programme

All activities are free to access. Priority will be given to women living in the East End.
