

Freedom from Torture

Freedom from Torture help asylum seekers and refugees who have survived torture recover and rebuild their lives in the UK. They offer:

- online information and advice
- Medico-legal report writing service. This provides specialist independent evidence of torture, including physical and psychological assessment, as part of asylum cases. Survivors do not have to be current clients of Freedom from Torture. You or your legal representative can request this on their website
- training for professionals working with torture survivors

Last updated: January 31, 2025

Telephone: 020 7697 7777

Telephone note: London office

Website: <http://www.freedomfromtorture.org/>

Twitter: <https://twitter.com/freefromtorture>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/FreedomfromTorture/>

Related Articles

Support for Asylum Seekers and Refugees