NE Youth is one of the North East's leading youth development charities supporting young people in the region. Their vision is to make sure all young people get the opportunities they deserve, get involved in their communities, enjoy their lives and achieve their potential.

They offer fun, opportunities to develop skills, events and opportunities to increase knowledge and self confidence.

- one to one support and help.
- an infrastructure service to help organisations/members that want to support young people.
- working with organisations/clubs/churches to organise activities

They have hubs in Kenton, Throckley, Lemington, Blaydon, Winlaton and Ponteland as well as other parts of the North East.
