The Land of Oak and Iron

The Land of Oak & Iron is a nature and heritage park covering a 177 square mile area surrounding the Derwent Valley including Consett, Rowlands Gill, Prudhoe and Whickham; located off the A694 at Winlaton Mill, Gateshead.

The Land of Oak and Iron has:

- The Land of Oak & Iron Heritage Centre with information about the industrial iron, steel and coal history of the area as well as natural history of the woodlands and wildlife.
- The Land of Oak & Iron café using locally sourced ingredients with vegan options
- walking trails
- coast to coast cycleway

Most walking and cycling trails are flat and accessible to all. Accessible car park

Hosted by Groundwork North East & Cumbria.

Last updated: September 2, 2024

Telephone: 01207 524898

Website: http://landofoakandiron.org.uk

Email: landofoakandiron@groundwork.org.uk

Twitter: https://twitter.com/LandofOakIron

Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/LandofOakandIron

Youtube: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC13AwLNLvPjFndp-nNpeatg

Cost: There may be a cost to this service/support

Address:
Spa Well Road
Winlaton Mill
Blaydon upon Tyne
NE21 6RU

Related Articles

Parks, gardens, forests and woodlands