

Pathways Employment and Wellbeing Newcastle

Pathways Employment and Wellbeing Newcastle will support clients to develop strategies to improve their mental health and wellbeing and secure or sustain employment. The service is being delivered in partnership with JET, who have specialised experience in supporting asylum seekers, refugees and individuals from minority ethnic backgrounds to integrate within the community.

This service is for individuals aged 18+, who live in the West End of Newcastle (including Elswick, Wingrove, and Westgate).

- to self-refer, please contact the email address or phone number below and they will support you to complete a self-referral form.
- external professionals such as social workers and support workers may also refer

If you are an existing JET client, please speak with your JET Adviser.
