Oxfam

Oxfam is a vibrant global movement of people who won't live with the injustice of poverty.

The issues they work on include:

- beating hunger
- safe, clean water for all climate change
- health and education
- women and gender justice
- responding to humanitarian emergencies

There are four Oxfam shops in Newcastle upon Tyne (City centre, Gosforth, Jesmond, Heaton) and there are many donation points.

Last updated: March 18, 2022

Telephone: 0300 200 1300

Website: https://www.oxfam.org.uk/

Email: heretohelp@oxfam.org.uk

Twitter: https://twitter.com/oxfamgb/

Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/oxfamgb/

Address:
Oxfam House
John Smith Drive
Oxford
OX4 2JY

Related Articles

How you can help refugees and asylum seekers

Help with clothing