

Your Best Friend

The Your Best Friend project, have been working with young people on the #FriendsCanTell campaign. A campaign to de-normalise abuse & control & help friends supporting friends.

Their online tool is designed by young people to help you recognise and safely manage concerns about abuse in their friend's relationship. Learn how to confidently to tell your friend 'that's not OK', or to tell a professional on your friend's behalf to get them the support they need.
