

Safeguarding Adults Unit

The Safeguarding Adults Unit provide specialist advice, support and training to organisations about safeguarding policies, procedures and best practice. They are the specialist team at Newcastle City Council responsible for safeguarding adults and provide advice to anyone working or volunteering in Newcastle.

Professionals: to get advice from the Safeguarding Adults Unit complete an Advice Request Form on their website.

How to report abuse in Newcastle

If you are told about or witness an incident of adult abuse, are the victim of adult abuse or think abuse may be happening:

- complete an online form
- contact Adult Social CarePoint at Newcastle City Council
- in an emergency or if someone's life is at risk call 999.

Read more about how to report adult abuse or safeguarding concerns on Newcastle City Council website

Last updated: January 31, 2025

Website: <https://www.newcastlesafeguarding.org.uk/safeguarding-adults-unit/>

Website 2: <https://www.newcastlesafeguarding.org.uk/our-training/>

Opening Hours: Monday to Friday 9am to 4pm

Cost: Free

Address:
Safeguarding Adults Unit
Westgate College
NE4 9LU

Related Articles

Adult abuse

Domestic abuse

Personal Safety

Learning disability local support services

Autism and local support services

Support for Asylum Seekers and Refugees

Hate crime