

Royal Victoria Infirmary (RVI) Hospital

Royal Victoria Infirmary (RVI) hospital is part of the Newcastle Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (NUTH). It provides treatment for minor injuries and specialist services including maternity, children, infectious diseases, burns, brain and nervous system.

If your injury or illness is more minor you can use the Minor Injuries Unit at the Emergency Department in the Royal Victoria Infirmary in the city centre.

Last updated: July 28, 2022

Telephone: 0191 233 6161

Telephone note: Switchboard

Telephone 2: 0191 282 0531

Telephone 2 note: Minor Injuries Unit

Telephone 3: 0191 213 7783

Telephone note 3: Subject access request

Website: <https://www.newcastle-hospitals.nhs.uk/hospitals/royal-victoria-infirmary/>

Website 2: <https://www.newcastle-hospitals.nhs.uk/services/emergency-department-ae/>

Opening Hours: 8am to 9pm 7 days a week

Cost: Free

Address:
Royal Victoria Infirmary
Queen Victoria Road
Newcastle upon Tyne
NE1 4LP

Related Articles

Minor Injuries Units

Walk-in centres \(Urgent Treatment Centres\)

Urgent medical help from NHS 111

Getting to hospital