

Attendance Allowance Helpline

Attendance Allowance is a benefit for people with a disability, when you need someone to help look after you. It is to help with extra costs. How much you get depends on the level of your need.

You can apply for Attendance Allowance by printing out and completing the claim form, or call the helpline to ask for a form.

Find more contact details on their website. This is part of the Department for Work and Pensions \(DWP\).
