

Newcastle Climbing Centre

Situated in the former church of St Marks the listed building provides a spectacular climbing environment with an internal height of 15 metres and over 1200 square metres of climbing walls for roped climbing and bouldering.

Whatever your standard of climbing either novice or expert, there are features and challenges to suit all abilities and ambitions. The climbing walls at the Newcastle Climbing Centre offer a fully comprehensive indoor climbing facility from bouldering and auto belay climbs to lead and top rope climbing.

They offer taster sessions, introductory courses and instruction for all ages in a safe and controlled environment. Their full facilities include a mezzanine viewing area, cardio gym, specialist gear shop, changing rooms and meeting room for use by all visitors.
