

TSA (Technology Enabled Care (TEC) Services Association)

TSA (Technology Enabled Care Services Association) have a searchable directory of technology providers to help you find local or national telecare and telehealth services. All of the organisations listed are TSA members, some are also certified to their Quality Assurance scheme, Quality Standards Framework (QSF) or Code of Practice (CoP)

They supports health and government to understand what technology is available to help people live safe and well. They also run training for staff.
