Bernicia

Bernicia is a social housing provider that provides homes to rent at an affordable rate to people in the North East. Visit their website to find homes available at the moment. They run a supported living scheme in Newcastle called Bowmont House. This is a extra care housing to help you live independently in a flat with personalised support. There is a care staff on site to provide additional support.

They provide help and support to their tenants. You can get help with:

- home repairs and maintenance
- money, debt and benefits advice
- personal and home safety
- finding work or training
- paying your rent in a way that suits you
