

Dementia Adventure

Dementia Adventure provide supported group holidays for people living with or caring for someone with dementia. They can arrange your travel, accommodation, activities and meals. You can choose a holiday that suits your needs, such as relax by the coast, walk in the mountains, or explore historic sites.

They provide trained staff and volunteers to help with cooking and driving, mealtimes, and accompany you on days out. Helping you to have fun, spend time outdoors and have a chance to rest and relax.

There is a cost for this service. Subsidised holidays are available.
