

The Recruitment Junction

The Recruitment Junction help place men and women with prior convictions into paid work across the north east

They can give practical support with:

- C.V. and interview skills
- help accessing photo ID, birth certificates and right to work documents
- applying for funding for training or qualifications
- sourcing workwear, PPE and trade tools
- 6 months mentoring support once in work
- interview and application process support

For people referred into the service, they must:

- have no ongoing issues with drugs or alcohol
- have a fixed address where you always stay
- not have any pending court cases or outstanding warrants
