261 Fearless Newcastle club

261 Fearless Newcastle Club is a women’s social running group. They focus on health and wellbeing, friendship and fun. There’s no races or training plans to follow. They meet weekly at Paddy Freeman’s Park on Friday mornings and some Tuesday evenings.

You can try any of their clubs for free. After your first Meet Run, it costs £2 to take part in each Meet Run or you can pay for an annual membership.

Last updated: July 30, 2024

Website: https://www.261fearless.org/261clubuk/

Email: 261fearlessnewcastle@gmail.com

Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/261fearlessclubnewcastle

Cost: There may be a cost to this service/support

Address:
meet at Paddy Freeman's Park
NE2 2EY

Related Articles

Physical and leisure activities

Fitness Activities