Dimensions - North East

Dimensions is a provider of services supporting people with learning disabilities, autism and complex needs. They support individuals, families and carers.

Dimensions offer supported living spaces for people to live in with tailored support depending on their level of need

Dimensions' outreach services (domiciliary care) are for people who live in their own homes and need support to remain independent.

They are registered with the CQC and inspected for their personal care service.

Dimensions North East are commissioned by Newcastle City Council
