Newcastle Wood Recycling CIC

Newcastle Wood Recycling CIC is a not-for-profit organisation that  provide a waste wood collection and recycling service. The timber they collect is used to create furniture and woodwork pieces for homes, gardens and businesses, or sold on for DIY material or as firewood at their timber yard, shop and online store.

They offer employment, training and volunteering opportunities to people in the community. This is for a range of activities such as helping to collect wood from building sites; helping to prepare wood or make products in the workshop; working in the retail side or helping behind the scenes with admin, accounts, IT or marketing.

They also provide studio space to other creative businesses.
