

Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

The Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust is the organisation which runs the two main hospitals in Newcastle; the Royal Victoria Infirmary (RVI) and the Freeman Hospital. The Trust also runs the Campus for Ageing and Vitality on the site of the former General Hospital. The Campus aims to become the world's premier centre for healthy ageing and living, making Newcastle the best place in the UK to grow old.

The Newcastle upon Tyne NHS Foundation Trust is commissioned by Newcastle City Council for sexual health services and oral health promotion.
