International Women's Day

8 March 2025 was international women's day, a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women and calling for gender equality. Many services, organisations and individuals held events and celebrations to mark the occasion. Newcastle City Council asked people for nominations of inspirational women in Newcastle as part of the celebrations, and created a booklet recognising those women.

You can view the celebrating inspirational women in Newcastle booklet here

There are also events taking place this week to celebrate the day:

Breaking the Barriers, 14 March 2025, 2pm to 4.30pm, at Hope Street Xchange, 1-3 Hind Street, Sunderland, SR1 3QD

Join Rape Crisis Tyneside and Northumberland for Breaking the Barriers, a free event of reflection and discussion to explore how to better support survivors of sexual violence.

NHS healthcare records focus group

The North East North Cumbria Integrated Care Board \(ICB\) want to hear from people living in the North East and North Cumbria about their views on how NHS healthcare records are being used for research and planning. They have already carried out street surveys of over 1,500 people. They showed us some people have greater concerns about sharing their NHS records for research and planning.

This work is part of an ongoing conversation with the public about how their health and care records are used for research and planning.

They are looking for people from the North East and North Cumbria to take part in the focus groups. Everyone is welcome, but in particular, they would like to hear from:

- Women aged between 30 and 59
- People living in Whitehaven, Workington, Middlesbrough, Northumberland, Newcastle, County Durham and Darlington.

They have spoken to lots of people who are very supportive of their healthcare records being used for research and planning, but we would like to hear more from people who are worried about it, or who might have already opted out.

Each session will have up to 8 participants and last 90 minutes.

The focus groups will take place online on the following dates:

- 25 March, 6 – 7.30pm
- 26 March, 12.30 – 2pm
- 27 March, 6 – 7.30pm
- 1 April, 6 – 7.30pm
- 2 April, 6 – 7.30pm

- 4 April, 12.30 – 2pm

Supporting LGBTQ+ young people in the North East and North Cumbria

27 March, 9am to 4.30pm, The Core, Newcastle Helix, Bath Lane, Newcastle, NE4 5TF

In 2024, a consortium of VCSE partners established Pride Youth Partnership, which is a network dedicated to supporting LGBTQ+ young people across the North East and North Cumbria (NENC).

The Partnership is now delivering a conference called 'Supporting out LGBTQ+ young people living in the North East and North Cumbria' on Thursday 27 March in Newcastle City Centre. They invite colleagues specifically working with young people across the NENC from a health, social care, education, research and commissioning context.

The aim of the conference is to:

- Place a spotlight on the current challenges that are faced by LGBTQ+ Young People living in the NENC area.
- Talk about specific health inequalities experienced by LGBTQ+ young people, and what this means specifically for our gender-diverse young people.
- Share learning and best practice that deepen understanding of intersectionality.
- Co-produce and agree priority areas for improving support and inclusion of LGBTQ+ young people living in the NENC that reach across health, education, social care and the VCSE.
