

Safe Families

Safe families are a faith based charity that provide support for children and families with and through local churches. They support with befriending, emotional support, practical help and short term respite for children.

Their home away from home service has volunteer host families who open their homes to children to stay for a few nights. Hosting can be planned in advance or arranged on the day when the need is urgent.

They also offer 45 minute information sessions delivered online about how Safe Families.
