NEWS

The installation is also a dementia and creativity reference library, generously organised by our partner Newcastle Libraries Reading Well Service. You will also find information on all our partners throughout the installation to help you find the support you need if dementia is a part of your life or if you are interested in volunteering in your community.

With thanks to our partners:

InformationNOW attended the “Drawn Together” exhibition launch at City Library on Monday to kick off Dementia Action Week. The space has been transformed into a cosy living room, with amazing artwork made by people living with dementia, their families, friends and carers. The exhibition runs until 12 June 2025, so there’s plenty of time to visit.

There are workshop and drop in sessions running in the space throughout May and June from local organisation supporting people affected by dementia in Newcastle. Newcastle Carers will be at the exhibition for anyone to drop in on 28 May, 4 and 11 June, Unison will be there on 27 May 12-2pm.

Newcastle has lots of dementia friendly activities and support available all year round from local services:

Newcastle City Library and Community Hub run a memory cafe for people affected by memory loss and their carers

Search Newcastle run regular memory cafes, singing for your brain and other dementia friendly groups.

Carers at work webinar

9 June, 12.30pm – 1.15pm, online via Teams.

Join this upcoming lunch-and-learn webinar from Working for Carers to gain the knowledge and confidence to support your employees, colleagues, and service-users who are carers.

Every day, 600 people leave work due to struggles balancing work and their caring role.

This free webinar will help you to:

- Understand 'who is a carer'
- Find out the challenges carers face juggling work and caring
- Implement support for carers at your organisation
- Access free, specialist information and support from the Working for Carers project

You'll also hear real-life stories from carers and local businesses who've implemented further support for carers.

The Working for Carers project supports unpaid carers aged 16+ to find and maintain employment, education, volunteering, and training opportunities. They also work with employers and organisations to become carer-friendly workplaces, including implementing the Carers Leave Act and Flexible Working Act.

Hate ID App and Hate crime support the Hate ID App, is a collaboration between Connected Voice Advocacy and researchers at Durham and Northumbria Universities which aims to better equip frontline practitioners to identify hate incidents and ensure victims are able to access the right support. The app is free and available on android phones, it asks practitioners a series of questions about the hate incident being reported to them.

You can find out more about the Hate ID App on Durham Universities website here.

Have you experienced hate crime or been targeted because of your race, religion, sexual orientation, disability or transgender identity? Connected Voice Advocacy is a free and independent service that can support. Connected Voice Advocacy Independent Hate Crime Advocates can:

- listen to you and understand what you are going through
- offer emotional support and support you to self-advocate.
- help you to explore your options, know your rights and make informed choices.
- support you to report hate crimes, should you wish to.

The service is open to anyone affected by hate crime who is aged 16 or over, and lives in Newcastle, Gateshead, Sunderland, North or South Tyneside, or Northumberland.

If you would like to make a referral for yourself or someone else to this you can find out more on Connected Voices website here, Email advocacy@connectedvoice.org.uk or call 0191 235 7013.

They also offer Hate Crime & Anti-Social behaviour training for organisations. This tailored training course is delivered by the Advocacy team and draws on the latest research they have been involved in with Durham and Northumbria Universities. The training incorporates the use of the new Hate ID App to understand the impact of hate crime, repeated hate relationships, and how to address and seek support for victims.

Connected Voice Hate Crime Advocacy Service and related work is made possible by funding from the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Northumbria.

You can find out more about the training on Connected Voices website here

CONSULTATIONS AND ENGAGEMENT

Provision of Carer Support Services – Market Engagement Event

Newcastle City Council are in the process of recommissioning of services and support for carers of all ages across Newcastle.

Newcastle City Council We want to build on the learning shared from the recent implementation of our Carers Strategy and to understand how they can also embed local, regional and national learning and research around how the council can shape the support to better enable carers in their caring role.

To progress this further, we would like to invite you, or a representative from your service/organisation to our service provider event where we will share what we know and enable your views, thoughts and opinions to be included from a provider or professional perspective.

The event will be held via Microsoft Teams on 30 May 2025 from 11am to 12:30pm.

If you would like to join us for the event, please contact:

nina.dixon@newcastle.gov.uk and a Microsoft Teams invite will be shared with you to join us for the event.

Riverside: Community Action on Need (CAN)

Riverside funding from the National Lottery to support a new Community Action on Need (CAN) project.

The sole focus of Community Action on Need is to promote and support community-led action by working alongside community members to tackle important and concerning issues that matter to them, while striving for positive change within the community.

Key aspects of community action include:

- Problem Solving
- Empowerment
- Collaboration
- Community-led Initiatives

Over the next couple of months the Community Projects Team will be having one to one and group conversations with centre users, local residents and members of the wider community about local concerns, issues and ideas.

You can get involved in the Community Action on Need project at a level which suits you.

Whether you want to join conversations about local issues, write letters to local governments, or place a community action, you can decide how much time and involvement you will have.

If you would like to be part of the project in any way you can complete the expression of interest form on Riversides website here
