

Northern Stage

Northern Stage (formerly Newcastle Playhouse) is a theatre located in the north end of the city centre facing the Newcastle University's student building. They host ambitious theatre, family shows and participatory work. The building has three performance spaces, two bars and simple and open access for visitors, audiences and performers. The doors are open from 10am every day except Sunday, so that people can drop in and buy tickets. The restaurant opens for breakfast from 10am and food is served until 9pm. The bar is open until 11pm and often later on performance nights.

They also have venue space for up to 447 people available for hire. Catering is available on request and there is wheelchair access to all floors. There is no on-site parking.

Northern Stage is a designated Safe Place for people with learning disabilities.

Northern Stage has a Changing Place accessible toilet. These toilets have equipment is to help you to get on and off the toilet, or to change your continence pad. Such as a hoist, a height-adjustable changing bench and a shower. These toilets have more space so your carer or carers can help you if needed. There is a changing area with screens or curtains to give you some privacy.
