The Glasshouse International Centre for Music

The Glasshouse International Centre for Music is a concert venue, performance venue, a learning centre and a tourist attraction.

They have a full programme of musical performances and learning and participation opportunities suitable for all ages. This includes programmes for adults where you can learn a musical instrument or sing. They also have programmes for children and young adults which may be of interest if you care for younger relatives or grandchildren. Visit their website to see what shows and events are coming soon.

Home to the Royal Northern Symphonia.

This organisation was previously known as The Sage Gateshead.
