

The Alnwick Garden

One of the world's most contemporary gardens, The Alnwick Garden's combination of provocative and traditional landscapes offer adventure and intrigue in the heart of Northumberland. Featuring Europe's largest wooden treehouse, the Poison Garden and the Bamboo Labyrinth, as well as interactive water features and an ornamental garden, The Alnwick Garden offers the alternative day out.

The Garden is accessible for all and there are mobility scooters and wheelchairs for hire free of charge. Take a look at their full accessibility guide .

Last updated: April 23, 2020

Telephone: 01665 511 350

Website: www.alnwickgarden.com

Email: info@alnwickgarden.com

Twitter: <http://twitter.com/alnwickgarden>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/alnwickgarden>

Cost: There may be a cost to this service/support

Address:

Denwick Lane
Alnwick
Northumberland
NE66 1YU

Related Articles

Parks, gardens, forests and woodlands

Children's activities

Day trips and visits