Bridge Folk Club

The Bridge Folk Club, meet and listen to a range of live folk singers from traditional to contemporary. They enjoy songs from Sweden, Germany, Spain, Japan, Australia, North America, England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. Everyone who comes along is encouraged, but never forced, to participate whether it be a song, poem, monologue, or just join in the choruses.

The group runs every Monday night at 8pm at the Bridge Hotel pub, in Castle Square. This is opposite the Castle Keep on the Newcastle end of the High Level Bridge. You can get to the Bridge very easily by train, metro and bus, and there is parking for cars.

Free for students.
