

Reading with Dementia workshop West End Library

Do you have lived experience of dementia?

Join charity Equal Arts and Newcastle Libraries throughout 2025 for a series of community workshops looking at creative ways to keep enjoying books.

Together with artists you will explore collections, poems and maps, sharing ideas to create new dementia-friendly resources.

This exciting new project will help improve cognitive stimulation, wellbeing and social connections.

To book your place or for more details contact:

0191 261 1619

information@equalarts.org.uk

Last updated: March 15, 2026