

Trinity House Heritage open day tour

an opportunity to learn about sea captains, famous ships, local heroes, the sailor's craft, centuries-old traditions and the enduring folklore of Tyneside Trinity House has been on its present site since 1505, yet remains unknown to many, a truly 'hidden gem'. The oldest part of the building has stood for over five centuries and has survived civil war, plague and great fires.

Guided tours will take place every 20 minutes from 10am until 3:20pm at Trinity House, Broad Chare, Newcastle upon Tyne, Tyne & Wear, NE1 3DQ
