

Represent Women

Represent Women is a group that helps make sure women and girls in the North East and Tees Valley are heard and supported. They work with charities and community groups to improve services and funding for women and girls.

Represent Women is a membership organisation and organisations can join for free

They offer:

- Support for women-led organisations
- Help with funding and policy issues
- A strong voice for women and girls in decision-making
- Free membership to connect and share ideas
- Monthly updates and news
