

North Tyneside VODA

VODA is a charity that provides advice, training, information and support to volunteers, voluntary and community groups working in North Tyneside.

They work locally, regionally and nationally to promote the value and needs of the voluntary and community sector in North Tyneside.

They develop networks and partnerships between the voluntary and community sector and others.

They also offer co-working, meeting, networking and incubator space to the local voluntary and community sector at the Spirit of North Tyneside Community Sector Hub in Wallsend.
