

Royal Voluntary Service (RVS)

The Royal Voluntary Service is a national charity with a local office which supports older people by giving time and practical help including:

- social clubs across Tyne and Wear
- speech after Stroke Group – a volunteer led group in Longbenton which offers peer support and activities
- home library service across Newcastle, Gateshead, Sunderland and North Tyneside.
- volunteer opportunities

Last updated: February 28, 2025

Telephone: 0191 300 9334

Website: www.royalvoluntaryservice.org.uk

Helpline: 0191 300 9334

Email: tynewearhub@royalvoluntaryservice.org.uk

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/RVSTyneWear/>

Cost: There may be a cost to this service/support

Address:

Correspondence to:
The Linskill Centre
Linskill Terrace
North Shields
NE30 2AY

Related Articles

Stroke

Volunteering

Libraries, Reading and Audio Books

Finding friends and Befriending services

Food and Friends

Help with shopping and prescriptions

Support Groups