

Barter Books

Barter Books is a second hand book shop with many features including open fires in the Winter. The Station Buffet offers food and beverages. A model railway acting as a link between the book columns of the central room, along with poetry lines. Numerous restored station features. Generous seating. A children's room with enough toys to allow parents and grandparents to browse elsewhere in peace – provided one guardian is left to look after the children! And a whole huge room lined with over forty glass cases containing many of the more interesting antiquarian books.
