The West Newcastle Picture History Collection is based in West End Library and is accessible to all. There are around 17,000 images and maps of the West End, including Benwell, Elswick and Scotswood. The collection includes a large selection of images by Jimmy Forsyth, but also covers other west end wards in detail. Ask a member of staff in advance for access on a Wednesday, Friday and Saturday for unaided research; volunteers are present to help with enquiries on Mondays between 10am and 4pm.

This is a designated Safe Place for people with learning disabilities.

West End Library is a Wellbeing Hub. They're a welcoming place to spend time in Newcastle. They offer a range of support such as hot and cold drinks, free Wi-Fi, place to charge your devices, information, advice and more. Read more about Wellbeing Hubs
