

S.Y. Killingley Memorial Trust

S.Y. Killingley Memorial Trust give grants to part-time learners in the arts and humanities in the North-East of England. Grants may be used to pay for course fees, travel, materials or other expenses incurred in following a course.

The Trust is open to anyone over 18 living in the North-East, or wanting to follow a course based in the North-East, who has difficulty meeting the cost. This is open to those who would like to take part in evening classes, private tuition or part-time degree or diploma courses.
