

The Muslim Initiative

The Muslim Initiative is a community association based in Newcastle upon Tyne. Their aim is to enhance the lives and future prospects of Muslims living in the North East of England through education, training, welfare and social engagement, as well as to create a cohesive atmosphere between Muslim and non-Muslim communities in the region.

Their services include:

- a food bank on the first Sunday of every month from 2pm to 3pm
- marriage and family guidance counselling
- Muslim health advice
- bereavement and burial advice
