

Volunteers' Week - Newcastle Volunteer Opportunities Fair

Looking for a meaningful way to get involved in your community?

Join us at Newcastle Cathedral during Volunteers' Week for a welcoming volunteer fair featuring more than 30 local organisations, all looking for volunteers across a wide range of roles – from community support and wellbeing to arts, heritage, and more. Whether you can spare a few hours now and then or are looking for a more regular commitment, this is a great opportunity to:

- Meet local charities and community groups
- Find a cause you're passionate about
- Discover flexible volunteering opportunities
- Make a real difference

The Opportunities Fair is FREE to attend — no booking required. This event is coordinated in partnership with Connected Voice and Volunteer Centre Newcastle.
