

Chilli Studios

Chilli Studios is an arts and mental health charity. They offer a range of creative arts and social activities each week to members unless advertised as public or free. Contact them for more information.

They work to promote social inclusion, encourage social interaction, build resilience, develop skills and ability, enable potential and improve wellbeing.

There is a cost to join but membership is flexible. If you get a Personal Budget you can apply for a membership and use it to pay on a monthly or yearly basis. If you have mental health needs but don't get a personal budget, you can apply for a subsidised membership in receipt of a letter from your GP or referral agent. A membership is £15 a month (£12 a month if you set up a standing order).
