

People's Emergency Briefing

National Emergency Briefing film screening on the climate and nature crisis presented by Unison Newcastle City Branch as part of Great Big Green Week. This is the biggest celebration of climate centred community action. We will be running community-centred activities throughout the week, bringing people together, increasing wellbeing in uncertain times, and giving back to our community.

Last updated: June 8, 2026