

Mr Wilson's Second Liners Live

Get ready for a riotous brass band street party as Mr Wilson's Second Liners bring New Orleans parade culture and 90s rave anthems crashing into the heart of Newcastle.

Bursting through the city with booming brass, massive club classics, colourful costumes, and infectious energy, this mischievous northern collective transforms the streets into a moving carnival of dancing, joy, and full-on festival chaos. Inspired by the famous New Orleans "Second Line" parades, you're invited to follow the band, join the procession, and lose yourself in a euphoric celebration of music, movement, and rave culture.

WHAT TO EXPECT

- A lively festival atmosphere bursting with brass, beats, dancing, and feel-good energy.
- A joyful walkabout performance blending New Orleans parade culture with iconic 90s rave anthems.
- Live brass musicians, colourful costumes, and spontaneous street party vibes throughout.
- Themes of celebration, community, togetherness, and collective joy.
- Audiences are invited to follow the band, join the procession, dance along, or simply soak up the atmosphere.

GOOD TO KNOW

- Performance duration: approximately 30 minutes.
- Audiences are free to come and go; stay for five minutes or follow the band's journey.
- Suitable for all ages.
- The performance moves through Newcastle city centre, so audiences can walk with the band or stop and watch.
- Dancing is encouraged, but you're equally welcome to enjoy from the sidelines.
- Expect live brass music, high-energy movement, and big festival party vibes throughout.
